

Designs on life

TODAY signals the start of Downtown Designs, a four-day interior design event. Those who have designs to get into the industry or just want a home-less-ordinary should take advantage of the chance to preview the latest in furniture, lighting, accessories, textiles and new technologies. There is also plenty on offer in the way of seminars and special events to get stuck into. Find out more at downtowndesign.com

